

HANDLING CONSTRUCTION WASTE

Loading construction waste at a tight urban building site. Note the extra space the barges provide

Aerial view from a major urban building site. The barges provide extra space. The covered one is taking dusty, waste plaster board – hence the cover

Barge loaded with spoil awaiting unloading – when it suits the land based operator

Barge loaded with conventional skips – showing the versatility of barges. This avoids extra handling of the waste.

Contact the Commercial Boat Operators Association at www.cboa.org.uk